

Myntra clocks 5 crores within the first five minutes of the sale

500% rise in traffic over a normal day at the opening of the sale

Over 2.4 million products sold on the first day

Bengaluru, December 23, 2017: The 7th edition of Myntra's End of Reason Sale (EORS) opened at 12 AM on December 22nd to a great start with Myntra clocking 5 crores in the first five minutes. Myntra witnessed 500% rise in traffic over a normal day and sold over 2.4 million products on the first day of EORS.

Speaking on the occasion, Ananth Narayanan, CEO, Myntra – Jabong, said, “We have witnessed outstanding response from both existing and new users in this edition of EORS, with traffic to the platform rising by 160 % over baseline days. We had over 8 Lakh customers order 2,4 million products on Day 1 of the sale and are on track to increase sales by 50% over the last edition of EORS. We have over 5.5 lakh Myntra Shopping Groups created this time which have contributed 27% of the revenues so far.”

A quick look into the products ordered on the first day of the sale reveals that a majority of men shopped for sports while women opted for Women's Western Wear. A lot of people also shopped for winter wear in both men and women categories.

As of now sports is the highest selling category in EORS followed by Men's Casual and Women's Western Wear. Personal care and Home furnishing have received great response and have grown by over 300% & 400 % respectively over a normal day. Our private brand Roadster continues to be at the top position.

Myntra is currently the No. 1 app on the IOS store and rated the top shopping app on the Google Play Store. Customers can look forward to a line-up of the best offers of the year in the remaining days of EORS.
